

Dear Family, Friends and supporters of LRHS Band,

The Leesville Road High School Band is working to fund our activities and purchase instruments for the upcoming season. This year, American-Publishers has joined us in our efforts and will donate back to the band a portion of every magazine subscription purchased through this program. Magazines you currently receive can also be renewed. Visit the online magazine store where you will find over 900 magazines at the lowest prices, All major credit cards are accepted and the site is completely secure. It is fast and easy!

With your help we can make this an exciting and successful year.
Thank you in advance for supporting our band program.
